NATIONAL TRAIL

Sit back and admire the sculpture at Saltburn

Here, the Cleveland Way rises onto the cliff top at Saltburn with dramatic views across the sea. This part of the trail provides a few surprises, with three artworks to discover along the route.

- 1 Start out from the Cat Nab Car Park on the seafront at Saltburn. Leave the car park and turn right along the seafront.
- 2 Pass the Ship Inn and turn left up the wooden stairs signed for the Cleveland Way. At the top you will appreciate the view over Saltburn from the Heritage Coast stone marker.
- 3 Continue along the Cleveland Way for 3 Kilometres passing alongside the railway until you reach the artworks and ultimately the Ring Sculpture.
- 4 Continue along the Cleveland Way, passing an interpretation panel for the Guibal Fan House. Carry on another 240 metres beyond the panel then turn right over the stile and across the field.
- 5 Cross the railway line with care, then head straight across the field, starting your climb up Warsett Hill.
- 6 At the gate continue on to the trig point at the top of the hill. (The right of way bears right before the summit and follows the contour around the hill, but it is open access and most people prefer to go to the summit for the excellent views).
- 7 From the trig point drop down to and then alongside the fence/hedge on the left.
- 8 At the gap in the hedge/fence turn left and across the next field. You now have Saltburn in your sights.
- 9 Cross this next field to reach the railway line once more. Again, cross with care.
- 10 From here it is a pretty obvious path through the fields back towards Saltburn.
- 11 Turn left here to follow the final path back into Saltburn.
